Ready. Set. Gov!
website management tool

Now every Maine county, city and town can have a web page or site that is part of the official state of Maine web portal, www.Maine.gov. Citizens, visitors, and businesses can find information about all local governments in Maine from one convenient location.

- Search for any county, city, or town in Maine from one location
- Essential information available for every county, city, & town
- Consistent, user-friendly layout
- Links to local online services & additional websites

Ready. Set. Gov! is the free, easy-to-use website management tool for county, city and town governments. Now every Maine county, city, and town can have a web page or site as part of Maine.gov.

You can use Ready. Set. Gov! at two levels:

1. Basic: Just keep your basic information up to date, including a link to an existing website if you have one. Your participation will enhance the ability of citizens to locate municipal information through Maine.gov.

2. Expanded: If your county or town does not have a website, you can use Ready. Set. Gov! to add pages, images, documents, and links to create a full-featured website.
